HORSE DOPE CASE

The Crown would be calling more than 100 witnesses in the Brighton racehorse doping case, including well-known trainers and a big contingent from Ireland, Mr. Owen Stable, Q.C., for the prosecution, said at Brighton Magistrates' Court yesterday. He opposed bail for five London men accused of conspiring to dope racehorses at Brighton, Newmarket, London, Newcastle and other courses over a period of more than nine years. He said that one man had already "escaped out of the jurisdiction of the courts".

He added that he would be calling a number of "frightened accomplices" to prove his case, and the Crown considered there was a risk that they would be interfered with if the defendants were granted '
